

Black and White

By David Arkin and Earl Robinson

The ink is black (clap, clap),
 The page is white, (clap, clap)
 Together we learn to read and write.
 The child is black (clap, clap),
 The child is white (clap, clap),
 The whole world looks upon the sight,
 A beautiful sight.

And now a child can understand
 That this is the law of all the land.
 (All the land)

The world is black (clap, clap),
 The world is white (clap, clap),
 It turns by day and then by night,
 The child is black (clap, clap),
 The child is white (clap, clap),
 Together they grow to see the light
 To see the light.

And now at last we plainly see
 A world of peace and liberty.
 (Liberty)

The world is black (clap, clap),
 The world is white (clap, clap),
 It turns by day and then by night,
 The child is black (clap, clap),
 The child is white (clap, clap),
 The whole world looks upon the sight,
 A beautiful sight.

Steady beat clapping

The world is black, the world is white,
 It turns by day and then by night,
 The child is black,
 The child is white,
 Together they grow to see the light,
 To see the light.

The world is black (clap, clap),
 The world is white (clap, clap),
 It turns by day and then by night,
 The child is black (clap, clap),
 The child is white (clap, clap),
 The whole world looks upon the sight,
 A beautiful sight,
 A beautiful sight,
 A beautiful sight.
